Dear Faithful of St. Michael the Archangel,

God reward your generosity to Our Lord, Fr. Mahowald, myself, and the Parish. God indeed is hearing our prayers. As of Friday, Fr. Mahowald is no longer on the ventilator. He still requires oxygen, but he is currently breathing on his own. His overall health is improving, though there are still many battles to be won. He is awake and communicative, and I have told him about all of your prayer efforts and support and he is very touched and very eager to return to be your pastor. I will continue to offer the Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday holy hours from 7-8. As for Friday I will reassess and send out an email with the update. Please feel free to email the parish if you currently are not a recipient of the parish email updates. Nevertheless, we continue to offer up our prayers and sacrifices to Our Lord Jesus Christ for these and so many other intentions.

Your Servant in Christ,

Rev. Anthony Dorsa, FSSP

Announcements:

- We have been asked to participate in a special prayer initiative in this time of uncertainty in our church via the Chaplain for the Confraternity of St. Peter. Please see the letter available in the back of the Church for more information.
- Gatherings After Sunday Mass– It is a wonderful thing to see so many of you stay after mass and enjoy meals and conversation together. It is such activities that bring us closer together as a family. Please be aware, however, that the “clean up” and lock up are done by volunteers who themselves have things to do on Sunday. With this in mind, please be mindful and try to be out of the Church by 1:45pm so that the hall can be cleaned and the doors locked. You are welcome to stay as long as you like outside.
