Dear Faithful of St. Michael the Archangel,

Fr. Mahowald is now back in residence at St. Michael's. He is still not completely back to full ministry but he is steadily progressing towards it. You will be seeing more and more of him around the parish. Please be sure to introduce yourselves! We are now entering into a familiar yearly event in the diocesan Annual Appeal. Envelopes can be found in the back of the church. The annual appeal is a yearly fundraiser for the diocese to fund an array of initiatives, from returns via parish grants to retirement funds, to catholic schools. While we are used to seeing ourselves as members of our parish, it is important for us to remember that we are part of the greater diocesan community, and while we see our parish priests as our spiritual fathers, it is important to remember that we parish priests minister to you on behalf of the bishop, the priest par excellence of the local Church. Many of you have asked me what would be an appropriate way to show Bishop Bambera our gratitude for his recent generosity in giving us a more secure home here in Scranton. Supporting his initiatives in the Annual Appeal is a great way to show our gratitude. Let us show him that we are a vibrant parish of eager Catholics happy to be home in the diocese of Scranton. Envelopes can be mailed directly to the diocese or dropped off at the office or in the collection basket.

Your Servant in Christ,

Rev. Anthony Dorsa, FSSP

The party is Saturday October 30th, starting at 6pm. We will start in the church with the Litany of the Saints and then move to the basement for the usual festivities; bring a snack to share. New this year for the pumpkin contest: think outside the carving "box". Carve, scratch, paint or decorate a pumpkin in a saintly theme and bring it for judging and just general admiration! Please keep the speeches to one minute or less so we can get through everyone in a timely manner! Any questions, please contact Mary Morris or Mary Bennett.
- Please Join us for a holy hour this week for the Church and FSSP on Wednesday from 7-8pm.
- We are planning to have the Ladies' Night beginning this Oct. 27. More details will be following.
